

	Approved by	Approval date	Effective date	Next review
--	-------------	---------------	----------------	-------------

Contents

5. Oversight of Animal Care 4

6. External and Multi-centre Animal Research 4

7. Schedule 8/9 Drug Usage and Reporting 5

8. Research Conducted Overseas 5

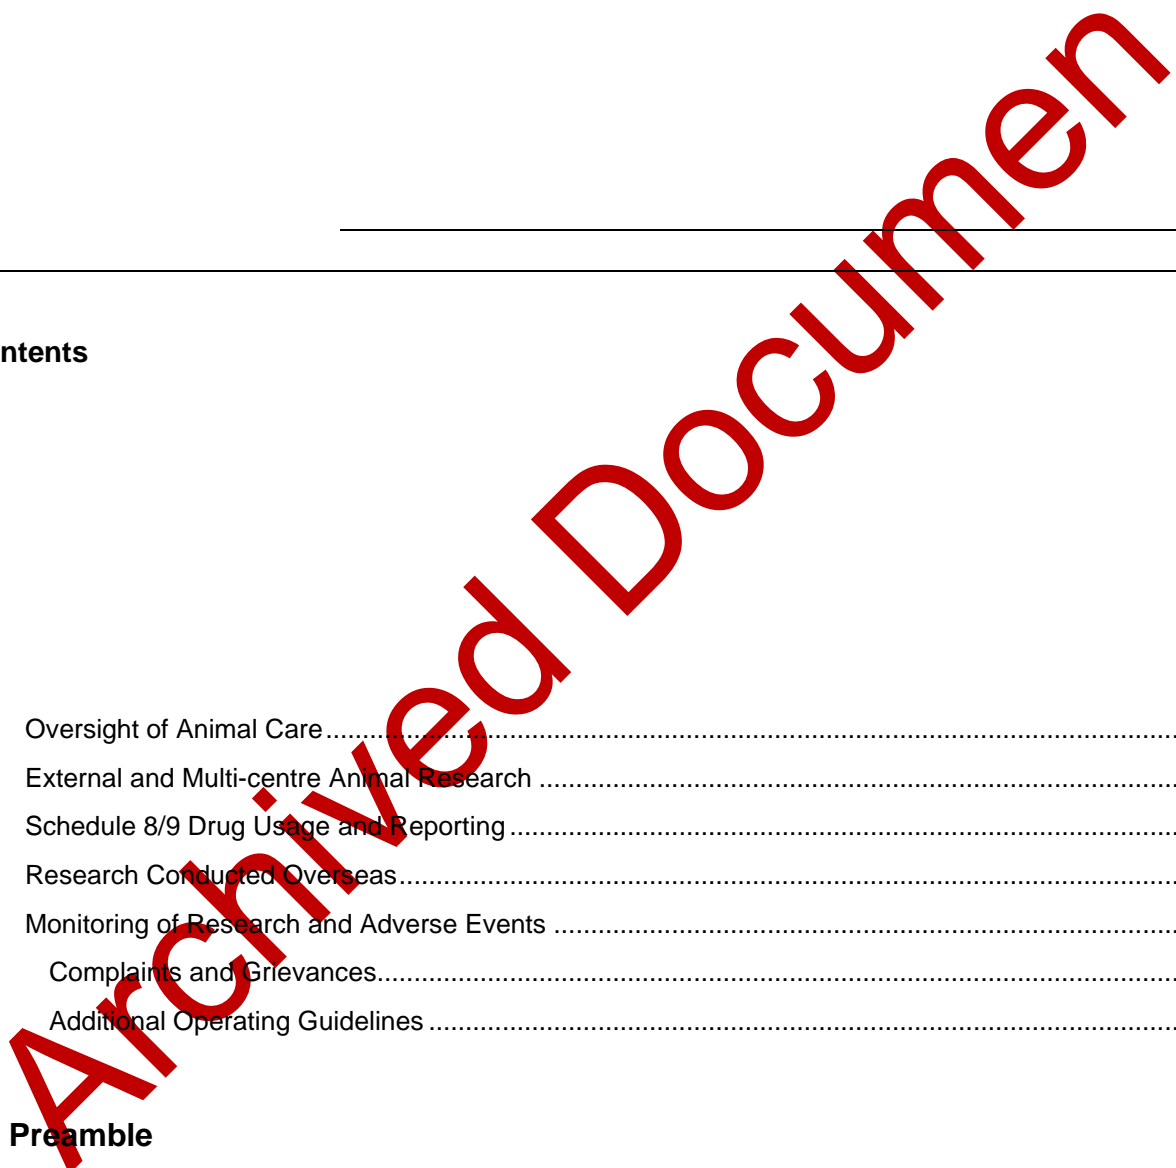

9. Monitoring of Research and Adverse Events 5

10. Complaints and Grievances 5

11. Additional Operating Guidelines 5

1. Preamble

The use of animals in research and teaching is a privilege that brings with it special considerations on whether their use is justified and ethical and whether animal welfare and animal wellbeing are balanced against the potential benefits to humans, other animals or the environment. At UNSW, proposals for the use of animals are evaluated for their scientific or educational merit justifying the use of animals and assessed on the grounds that animal

Arch

Arch

Arch

Arch

Arch

Arch