Examples include: presenting work in whole or significant part in collusion with done. See Table 1 for illustrative examples.

Typically the management of plagiarism begins at the School level. If upon investigation, the level of plagiarism is significant and serious misconduct, such as Level 3 Plagiarism, this must be referred to the Office of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Students).

4.2 Action following Plagiarism Determination

When a student has been determined as having plagiarised, the actions should include one
