1. Principles

- 1.1 The Student Code of Conduct (the Code) provides a framework for the standard of conduct expected of students of the University with respect to their academic integrity and behaviour. Where a student breaches the Code, the University may take disciplinary action. Such matters are handled in accordance with the Student Misconduct Procedure. Where there are breaches of the Code relating to plagiarism the Plagiarism Policy should be referred to in the first instance for coursework and higher degree students. Plagiarism matters relating to coursework students are handled in accordance with the Managing Plagiarism for Students Enrolled in Coursework Programs Procedure.
- 1.2 This procedure sets the framework for the handling of allegations of student misconduct in a manner that is fair, consistent, clear and in accordance with the principles of natural justice.
